Quarter Area

The unit has four modules, connection from the main stack, connecting passage between a room module and a hanger bay module.

Optional additions to the unit and rent include the basic shell and the area of the main stack around the lift tube. This is great for a separate office or shop that is accessible by the public.

Everyone is considered a responsible adult and treated as such regardless of their avatar form. Flying and voice is allowed for everyone although game spots may have restrictions via Security Orb. Please manage your voice controls and language accordingly.
